

CONTENTS

	Page
Introduction	vii
1. Constraints and contradictions: whiteness and femininity in ancient Greece Bridget M. Thomas (Truman State University)	1
2. The graces and colour weaving Beate Wagner-Hasel (University of Hannover)	17
3. Transvestism or travesty? Dance, dress and gender in Greek vase-painting Tyler Jo Smith (University of Virginia)	33
4. The 'language' of female hunting outfit in ancient Greece Eva Parisinou (University of Leicester)	55
5. The meaning of the veil in ancient Greek culture Douglas L. Cairns (University of Glasgow)	73
6. Investing the barbarian? The dress of Amazons in Athenian art Ruth Veness (University of Oxford)	95
7. Levels of concealment: the dress of hetairai and pornai in Greek texts Andrew Dalby (Saint-Coutant)	111
8. Visions of gleaming textiles and a clay core: textiles, Greek women, and Pandora Judith Lynn Sebesta (University of South Dakota)	125
9. Clutching at clothes Sue Blundell (London)	143
10. A woman's view? Dress, eroticism, and the ideal female body in Athenian art Lloyd Llewellyn-Jones (The Open University)	171
11. Controlling women's dress: gynaikonomoi Daniel Ogden (University of Wales, Swansea)	203
12. Clothes as sign: the case of the large and small Herculaneum women Glenys Davies (University of Edinburgh)	227
13. 'Dedicated followers of fashion': John Chrysostom on female dress Aideen M. Hartney (University of Bristol)	243
Index	259